LOWMOOR IRON —CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC AND Managers of Estircade.

Borrow, Oct. 17, 1860.

To Wa. A. CROCKER, Esq., Taunton Locemotive W. Chapter Sir: I received the letter the Lewmoor Company are sent to you, dated Lowmoor Works, 18th September, 1850, for the perusal of which I sum much obliged, and join the Lowmoor Company in sincerely thanking you and Mr. Cook for the important information you have given as to the imposition that has, for a considerable time past, been prachaged upon the United States public, in substituting an inferior and spurious article in the place of real Lowmoor from and we are of opinion that the best means we could adopt the prevent the imposition in future, would be to publish that letter antire in the newspapers, and at the same time caution the American people, that the only certain way of obtaining genuine Lowmoor Iron is either by applying direct to John Finch and Sons, from Merchants, Liverpool, who are the sole agents of the Lowmoor Company for the United States, or to order it through their only representatives in the States, Steers, Gilmore, Blake & Ward, bankers, Botton. As we know you are equally derirens as ourselves that this fraud should be stopped at once, whoever may be the guilty parties, we think it almost unnecessary to ask your permission to publish the Lowmoor Co.'s letter, but it is a liberty we must not take without your vanction, requesting which at your carliers convenience. I am, for John Finch a Son.
